

SANCHEZ] and the voters of the 46th District of California for the kind of scrutiny and harassment this body has never seen before.

The Committee on House Oversight and former representative Bob Dornan, whom the gentlewoman from California (Ms. Sanchez) defeated, have led a widespread, abusive and costly search for voter fraud, claiming that the gentlewoman won her seat in Congress because of massive illegal voting by non-citizens and illegal immigrants.

After 9 months of inquiry, Mr. Speaker, and more than $300,000 in taxpayer dollars spent, my Republican colleagues have failed to prove that Mr. Dornan's loss was a result of electoral fraud.

Mr. Speaker, it is time to wrap up the House inquiry, as the Los Angeles Times said over 3 months ago. It is time to end this blatant harassment of the gentlewoman from California [Ms. SANCHEZ] and the targeting of Hispanics in general. This effort to intimidate and harass new citizens with foreign surnames to stop them from voting must end.

BALANCING THE BUDGET, THE FIRST ORDER OF BUSINESS

(Mr. HAYWORTH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HAYWORTH. Mr. Speaker, having heard the comments of my colleague from the Virgin Islands, and indeed the comments of several of my liberal colleagues this morning, it is small wonder that the American people say, will we ever stop the partisan bickering and go to work on behalf of the American people?

Are there concerns we should all have with campaign finance laws? Absolutely. But paramount today is the subject of financing for the family and making sure that American families hang onto more of their own money and send less of it to Washington.

And, Mr. Speaker, this day and its significance should not be lost on the American people, as we pass the first balanced budget in a generation, as we save Medicare for the next decade and make preparations to deal with those serious questions, and as we offer tax relief in a tax cut for working families and providing tax relief at every stage of life for Americans for the first time in 16 years.

Try as they might, the professional politicians want to change the subject, but the American people know that balancing the budget and putting our family finances in order is the proper first order of business.

DEMOCRATIC PRIORITIES REFLECTED IN BALANCED BUDGET BILL

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, for the last several months Democrats have been urging budget negotiators to include important Democratic priorities in this budget bill; to include $24 billion for kids' health care, to include $35 billion in education tax credits, and to provide the child tax credit for all of America's families who work and who pay taxes.

Meanwhile, our Republican colleagues have been fighting for huge tax breaks for the richest individuals and corporations in this country and calling tax breaks for hardworking low income families welfare, including some of the families that they have brought up here this morning. Only a few days ago they were saying that those folks were on welfare.

Well, I am proud to stand here today and say that by standing up for Democratic priorities, tax cuts for working families, tuition credits for college, health care for uninsured children in this country, that in fact those Democratic priorities have prevailed. The long and the short of it is the hardworking middle income families of this country have benefitted from this tax package.

RENEW SUPPORT FOR MIDDLE EAST PEACE

(Mr. GILMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, sadly and regrettably I rise this morning to inform my colleagues of two devastating explosions that rocked the city of Jerusalem today in which 18 people were killed and 150 wounded. This busy marketplace in Jerusalem known as the Mahaneh Yehudah was infiltrated, apparently by two suicide bombers, who set off explosions within seconds of each other. More fatalities are expected.

Although PLO Chairman Yasser Arafat called Prime Minister Netanyahu to express his condolences, the latest violence indicated once again that Mr. Arafat and the Palestinian authority are not doing enough to root out terrorism. It is not enough to express mere condolences.

Apparently, that may be why the State Department has not issued a PLO Compliance Report in advance of any presidential certification for more money for the PLO. We now know what the State Department failed to acknowledge, that the PLO is not in compliance with its commitments and must do much more.

Legislation regarding this devastating loss is being prepared by the gentleman from California [Mr. LANTOS] and myself. We invite our colleagues to cosponsor the bill and to join us in extending our deepest sympathies to the families of the dead and injured, as we renew our steadfast support for peace for all the people of Israel and throughout the Middle East.

(Mr. GOODE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GOODE. Mr. Speaker, I wish to make a few comments on the retirement of Dr. Richard L. Leshner, who is retiring after 22 years as president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

During his tenure, chamber membership has grown to 215,000 business members, 3,000 State and local chambers, 1,200 trades and professional associations, and he guided the creation of BizNet, the American Business Network, and its two award winning television programs, First Business and It's Your Business.

He oversaw creation of the Center for Workforce Preparation, which helps ensure that Americans are ready to meet the challenges of a new economy. And he credits retired Virginia Justice Lewis F. Powell with the high profile that the chamber has taken. He implemented many of Powell's suggestions over the years.

Congratulations to Dr. Leshner on his successful years at the U.S. Chamber and best wishes on his retirement.

ANXIOUS TO MOVE AHEAD ON ANOTHER TAX PACKAGE

(Mr. KNOLLENBERG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, I am very pleased, and I know others are too, to hear that an agreement has been reached between the Congress and the White House on the tax cut package. I am especially pleased when I recall the last time Congress and the White House reached an agreement on the tax package Republicans were definitely not celebrating. They were not celebrating because that tax package was the largest tax increase in the history of this country.

So today marks a much different kind of agreement. And although I am pleased with the agreement on tax cuts, we should put this in perspective. Now, listen to this. The amount of net tax cuts over the next 5 years will be $91 billion. The amount of spending over the next 5 years will be $9 trillion. Nine trillion. Tax cuts $91 billion, spending $9 trillion.

So I would just like to say that this tax cut package is only a first step toward deeper tax cuts, more money in the pockets of Americans, and we also want to have some fundamental tax reform. I cannot wait to get going on another tax cut package.

CELEBRATION OF 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF WRIGHT BROTHERS FIRST FLIGHT

(Mr. HALL of Ohio asked and was given permission to address the House
